What's Happening In The Garden?

A Note From Our Founder

Imagine offering your customers not just another cannabis product, but an award-winning, scientifically backed experience. At Dewey Cannabis Co. we're not just growers; we're pioneers in the cannabis genetics revolution. Our mission? To elevate your inventory with unparalleled quality and consistency, grounded in sustainable practices that today's consumer deeply cares about.

Why choose Dewey Cannabis Co. for your shelves? Because we're the first to identify and integrate natural disease resistance into our cultivars, significantly reducing pesticide use and ensuring a cleaner, safer product. Our newest strains, like the award-winning Caribbean Chocolate, demonstrate our commitment to excellence and innovation, setting us apart in a crowded market.

But we don't stop at superior genetics. Every batch from Dewey is a testament to our dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship, resonating with consumers who value ethical consumption. With Dewey on your shelves, you're not just selling cannabis; you're offering a vision of the future of cannabis cultivation – ethical, sustainable, and scientifically superior.

Let's partner to bring this vision to your customers.
Dewey Cannabis Co.: Where science meets satisfaction.

Dewey Packaging Perks

Color Coded Packaging to quickly identify your Dewey product

We know your store gets busy and no one has the time to read small variable labels or look things up on Leafly. Reach for a color coded Dewey product to quickly and confidently find a product that matches that indica, sativa, or hybrid effect that your customers are seeking.

Robust Cultivar Information provided by the experts themselves

Scan the QR code on the front of any of our jars to quickly uncover our cultivar pages. Our cultivars pages located at deweycannabis.com provide information on our strains and their effects that have been captured through surveying our cultivars out to budtenders across the state.

Durable Packaging to protect our precious products

From crush resistant joint boxes to dental grade ceramic vapes, we aim to ensure that our customers have a pleasant and undamaged experience with our products.

The Dewey Difference

Dewey understands that to have a pleasant experience with a brand, it extends beyond the quality of the cannabis. By creating unique and custom packaging that allows for better enjoyment of the cannabis, Dewey aims to create a cannabis experience that will have your customers coming back to you and asking for us by name.

Our Dewey Premier Partners

We've been there. We get it. Finding your favorite cannabis brand at a local retailer can be a challenge. Trying to find your favorite cultivar? Even harder. We've made your journey simple by creating our Premier Partners program to help Dewey fans. A Dewey premier partner is a Washington based retailer who carries five or more of Dewey's cultivars and carries each product line that we offer.
